Fked In Love

Cobra Starship

I said that I would never do you wrong,
Said a million things but know I now,
That I should really stick to what I said, what I said.But I'm stupid, I'm wasted, I'm a moron, let's face it, I blew it, you waited, my last card, I played it. Didn't even stand to watch you go.And now you're gone, but I'm still so fucked in love, with you.
I'm still so fucked in love with you. I tried to move on, I even kissed, every girl,
On the VIP list, but I'm still so fucked in love with you.And after all the shit I put you through, after all I broke your heart in two,
I was so fucked I couldn't see, but I see.But I'm stupid, I'm wasted, I'm a moron, let's face it, I blew it, you waited, my last card, I played it. Tell me am I just a kid in a dream, wake me.And now you're gone, but I'm still so fucked in love, with you.
I'm still so fucked in love with you. I tried to move on, I even kissed, every girl,
On the VIP list, but I'm still so fucked in love with you.I had it all, and I thought I'd be okay without you (okay without you).
I can write you this song, but it's not enough, it's not the same without you, same without you. Don't don't don't give up, I still have hope.
So don't give up, it doesn't feel so far, or long ago.
But I'm still so fucked in love with you.
But I'm still so fucked in love with you. I tried to move on, I even kissed, every girl,
On the VIP list, but I'm still so fucked in love with you.
