

T.o.d.a.y.

Royce Da 5'9"

Yeah, uh, uh

I done been in this game for years, it made me an animal
I learned that nobody else can be held accountable
But you for your career not your manager, face it
Even he can fuck up a relationship I learned it don't matter who's spittin' better
While these rappers kill each other
Them Jews they stick together like glue
And generate more money than FUBU
For somethin' made for you by you Every hip hop nigga listen and wishin' he had your style
To go against you if you rip him and pass him by (Yeah)

A mastermind is somebody, who's actually kind to everybody
And try to see every autograph is signed The humblest way to look at your career
Is every nigga in here is one hit away
(Yeah)

Whatever goes around in rap
Happens to not come back to me and I ask you If I was to die today would you pick me up
Because I'm down and out?

(Na, na, na) T represents the time when my hope fades
O is just a sign on my mind on my broke days
D is for the dangerous way that the flow stray
A represents the answer to the question I'm askin'
(No no no)

Y, is it today? I should
(Die) Damn, right after one quick summer
Am I Young MC or a one hit wonder?
Is it a following that supports me
BET, MTV or E true Hollywood story? Can I hold my own
And rap without havin' to go back to Pharrell or Poke and Tone?
Can a married man still appeal to broads
Knowin' everything he's spittin' from here on in gon' be raw? Can a nigga simply spit that real shit
Just for niggaz that feel me or will the system kill me?
(Uh)

If I drop this album and it sells
And the next one don't top it, will it be considered a failure? If I had to drop outta the limelight for a while
Would you still mob me? Hell, naw
You would not give a fuck about me
If I worked a regular job, I don't even gotta ask y'all If I was to die today would you pick me up
Because I'm down and out?

(Na, na, na)T represents the time when my hope fades
O is just a sign on my mind on my broke days
D is for the dangerous way that the flow stray
A represents the answer to the question I'm askin'
(No, no, no)
Y is it today? I should
(Die)We just wanna see you survive
Anytime you wanna talk, maybe either one of y'all
Wanna give a holla this way
(Yeah)
Every lady involved is rootin' for the underdogYou don't let him die today, no
Oh no, we ain't tryin' to see
You go, I want you here beside me
I don't want it to change, don't dieNow as far as my weaknesses, I have a hard time competin'
The chart and on SoundScan, the media base
I respect Dre for teachin' me that
Money is easy to make but hard to keepAs far as my nigga 'Los, I love him
He showed me you can do a dope album with no budget
Yeah, with lethal rhymes, they get that
He brought you into the game
He can take you out outta people's mindsYeah, die, those who feel my career will die
Those who choose to leave me behind
Are confused 'cause they don't hear me cry
Rather ya ears is ready or not
I know you can hear me now like Mary J. BligeI will take the shit
I will burn yo' bridges and I ain't talkin' 'bout our relationship
What goes around, comes around with every person
Rather it's life or rap whatever, Death Is CertainIf I was to die today would you pick me up
Because I'm down and out?
(Na, na, na)T represents the time when my hope fades
O is just a sign on my mind on my broke days
D is for the dangerous way that the flow stray
A represents the answer to the question I'm askin'
(No, no, no)
Y is it today? I should
(Die)No, no, no, die
