Daddy's Girl

Katey Sagal

My old man
Iâ€™m a chip off the old block
My old man
Is still living here
Not in flesh and bone, heâ€™s never far from home
Iâ€™m forever walkin' in my daddyâ€™s shoes
Iâ€™ve got his misery, I got good company Guess Iâ€™ll always be
My daddyâ€™s girl

My momma sang
Call it inspiration
And sheâ€™s comin' on through me
I can feel her now
Though she walks on the other side
To me sheâ€™s still quite alive
Iâ€™m forever rockin' in my mommas arms
Mom had a broken heart
From a world just too damn hard
Mine breaks often cause Iâ€™m a mommaâ€™s girl

You spend a lifetime saying this is who I am
Then you find yourself saying something
You donâ€™t understand, you look in the mirror
There you are
Your daddyâ€™s girl

Lyrics powered by lyrics.tancode.com written by CETERA, PETER P. / GOLDENBERG, MARK
Lyrics Â© Universal Music Publishing Group

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/