Ante Up

Ages and Ages

I see whites in the eyes of the lawless
Creeping in through the cracks of my fence
I wanna shake 'em off, I'm gonna pay 'em their dues
'Cause after me, they're coming after youBut I don't know if I can wait till then
Where I'm at, I'm gonna be until the end
And with a little unrest, they're sure to turn around and go
'Cause they don't believe what they pretend to knowAnd the ones who relate
Are the ones who will take it upI got a life in the breeze and the branches
Shake the leaves to make my presence known
Well, it's a curious path to be had by a few
But it's enough for me, if it's enough for youAnd the ones who relate
Are the ones who will take it upAnte up, won't you ante up
Come and lay your future in this earth and mud
Ante up, won't you ante up
Leave it all behind and stay for goodAnte up, won't you ante up
Come and lay your future in this earth and mud
Ante up, won't you ante up
Leave it all behind and stay for goodAnte up, won't you ante up
Come and lay your future in this earth and mud
Ante up, won't you ante up
Leave it all behind and stay for goodAnd the ones who relate
Are the ones who will take it up
