Obscure Divine Manifestation

Old Man's Child

So I dive into the universe, I fly among the stars
Creations of the worlds between our own and the obscureSo I dive into the universe, I fly among the stars
Creations of the worlds between our own and the obscure
Tangled in a world of light with darkness inside
The labyrinth of cosmos is not a path to lifePassing Saturn, closing on the moons of Jupiter
Europa shines in golden light, hiding it's secrets
Underneath the wall of ice evil rests alone
Waiting for the cosmic call to move the forces alongEuropa's brother [Incomprehensible]Alone I fly towards the center, a black hole ahead
To join the others on his ride, which will never endPassing Saturn, closing on the moons of Jupiter
