

A Song Is Not A Business Plan

The Rocket Summer

Hey stop, do you hear an echo?
I do but does anyone know?
The same old thing we heard an hour ago
Different band, the same radio We broke down on the side of the road
East Coast we had to cancel the shows
I'm tryin' as hard as I can
But I'd rather write a song than a business plan Because this is me sayin' words I actually mean
I won't compromise this thing just to make it I want to that's a given but
I can't imagine it the same way as you
Oh, you know I'll never do
The things they do just to make it Sayin' so, you say got it in you?
Somethin' to say well, I don't hear it in any one of your tunes
The words you heard usually used
You got a hook, there's no book, got no soul, just a look And this is me sayin' words I actually mean
I won't compromise this thing just to make it I want to that's a given but
I can't imagine it the same way as you
Oh, you know I'll never do
The things they do just to make it Do you even know what you're even sayin'?
Or you just sayin' it 'cause someone else said it
Do you even know what you're even sayin'?
Or you just sayin' it 'cause someone else said it Do you even know what you're even sayin'?
Or you just sayin' it 'cause someone else said it
Do you even know what you're even sayin'?
Or you just sayin' it I want to that's a given but
I can't imagine it the same way as you
Oh, you know I'll never do
The things they do just to make it I want to that's a given but
I can't imagine it the same way as you
Oh, you know I'll never do
The things they do just to make it
