

Tin Man

Tate Moore

I don't know why I do what I
I don't know why I do what I do
It feels so good to me I guess that's why I do what I
I guess that's why I do what I do
'Cause it feels good to me
And it's right there for the taking With a hammer and a nail a man left to die
With a hammer and a nail I eat this coconut
Yeah, it's true I'm looking at the sunset wondering, 'So what?'
The Tinman's got nothing on me
Heart, I hope you wake up soon I don't know why I feel like I should change
I don't know why what I need and what I want
Can't be the same things, oh I don't know why I don't miss my friends
I don't know why I cannot comprehend
How special love can be
And it's right there for the taking With a hammer and a nail a man left to die
With a hammer and a nail I eat this coconut
Yeah, it's good I'm looking at the sunset wondering, 'So what?'
The Tinman's got nothing on me
Heart, I hope you wake up soon The Tinman's got nothing on me With a hammer and a nail a man left to die
With a hammer and a nail I eat this coconut
Yeah, it's good I'm looking at the sunset wondering, 'So what?'
The Tinman's got nothing on me
Heart, I hope you wake up soon, please

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnlyrics.com/>