Always Something There to Remind Me)

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

I walk along the city streets
You used to walk along with me
And every step I take
Reminds me of just how we used to beOh, how can I forget you girl
When there is always something there to remind me?
(Something there to remind me)
Always something there to remind me
(Always something there to remind me)Shadows fall, I pass the small cafe
Where we would dance at night
And I can't help recalling
How it felt to kiss and hold you tightOh, how can I forget you girl
When there is always something there to remind me?
(Something there to remind me)
Always something there to remind meI was born to love her
And I will never be free
Always be a part of me
Woah, woah, woahIf you should find to miss the sweet
And tender love we used to share
Just go back to the places
Where we used to go and I'll be thereOh, how can I forget you girl
When there is always something there to remind me?
(Something there to remind me)
Always something there to remind meI was born to love her
And I will never be free
You'll always be a part of meThere is always something there to remind me
(Always something there to remind me)
Always something there to remind me
(Always something there to remind me)Always something there to remind me
(Always something there to remind me)
Always something there to remind meRemind me
