Cry Sometimes

Kate Earl

My baby, he says he loves me
My baby, he says he needs me so
Covers me with sunshine
Tucks me in with songsEvery now and then
Troubles come my way
Asks me what to do
And to him I simply sayI gotta cry sometimes but it's alright
I gotta cry sometimes, it's alright
I gotta cry sometimes but it's alrightMy baby, he brings me flowers
Takes me out to see the shows
He don't need complainin'
I couldn't ask, couldn't ask for moreEvery now and then
Troubles come my way
Asks me what to do
And to him I simply sayI gotta cry sometimes but it's alright
I gotta cry sometimes but it's alright
I gotta cry sometimes but it's alrightNow, I'd like to thank you for everything you do
Whenever I'm around you, you turn my gray skies blue
And if the world should crumble, it's alrightI gotta cry sometimes but it's alright
I gotta cry sometimes, it's alright, yeah, yeah
Gotta cry sometimes, gotta cry sometimes, gotta cry
