Christmas In the Country

Marie Osmond

The weather man says we can count on snow tonight
The Hills will glisten in a blanket of white
Down in this valley, in our little country home
Where family has all gather in, there's a whole lot going onIt's Christmas, in the country, and everybody's home
Can you believe another year has already come and gone
Everybody's jolly the calms day's gone bye
The stars shine round as heavens light
It's Merry Christmas in the country tonightThe guest will hang the stockings by the fire place again
Anticipating the surprises in there
The gifts received and given; will fill the hearts with cheer
Wish this Christmas Spirit could last throughout the yearIt's Christmas, in the country, and everybody's home
Can you believe another year has already come and gone
Everybody's jolly the calms day's gone bye
The stars shine down as heavens new light
It's Merry Christmas in the country tonight
