In the Blood

Metal Church

Just the pain has worn me down
Don't play me far ahead
Living quiet, fighting for some time
You're gonna see one day
You're not listening now
You haven't heard a word I saidYour laughter burns hot
An existing pawn
Your lies are open now
Nothin' left to hideNow, I'm telling you
Leave all your troubles far away
I've listened now to this dead end shit
It all just sounds the sameYour laughter burns hot
An existing pawn
Your lies are open now
Nothin' left to hide, hide, hideYou're a big boy now
Get up off the floor
You what?
Do you want to know
Coming to get youYes, everybody wants a piece of your ass
It's time you know the pain
Your time is running out
We're gonna meet on Judgment DayYour laughter burns hot
An existing pawn
Nothin' left to hide
Hide, hide, hide, hide, hide
You're in the blood
