

The Cave

Michael Bross

It's empty in the valley of your heart
The sun, it rises slowly as you walk
Away from all the fears and all the faults
    You've left behind
The harvest left no food for you to eat
You cannibal, you meat-eater, you see
    But I have seen the same
I know the shame in your defeat
    But I will hold on hope
    And I won't let you choke
    On the noose around your neck
    And I'll find strength in pain
    And I will change my ways
I'll know my name as it's called again
'Cause I have other things to fill my time
You take what is yours and I'll take mine
    Now let me at the truth
    Which will refresh my broken mind
    So tie me to a post and block my ears
I can see widows and orphans through my tears
    I know my call despite my faults
    And despite my growing fears
    But I will hold on hope

    And I won't let you choke
    On the noose around your neck
    And I'll find strength in pain
    And I will change my ways
I'll know my name as it's called again
So come out of your cave walking on your hands
    And see the world hanging upside down
    You can understand dependence
    When you know the maker's land
    So make your siren's call
    And sing all you want
I will not hear what you have to say
    'Cause I need freedom now
    And I need to know how
    To live my life as it's meant to be

And I will hold on hope
And I won't let you choke
On the noose around your neck
And I'll find strength in pain
And I will change my ways
I'll know my name as it's called again
