

Sense of Purpose

The Pop Group

Science has no soul
Science has no conscience
We are not fuel
We are not consequences
Unseen invisible ghost in a machine
No need for thought
Science is divineWe cannot lose control
We cannot play at God
We cannot play at GodWe were chosen, thought we were good
But our job possessed us, and drank our blood
Science has no soul
Science has no conscience
We are not fuel
We are not consequencesUnseen ghost in a machine
No need for thought
Science is divineScience is the hunter
Science is the beast
Impersonating angels
Short cut to hellUnseen ghost in a machine
No need for thought
Science is divine
