

Human After All

Brother Cane

Here I am alone
How am I holding on?
Breathing hardly, need releasing
How am I holding on? Blue sky ends
Rain it clouds my life again
And I know I'm moving in circles
Nothing can turn me around
Tell everybody
That I must be human after all All this time is gone
What is right or wrong?
One is waiting, two believing
Love is right and wrong I can't lie here
All I want to feel is right
But I'm moving in circles
Nothing can turn me around
I'm leavin' tomorrow
And I must be human after all
