Tomorrow's Victim

Six Feet Under

Premonition, I dreamt of horror
Knowledge of the future
I've broken through the barrierTranscend beyond my body
The spirits call to me
These nightmares are realityReflections, of another life
Reflections, in my eyesVisions, victims
I've seen each death
Murder, torture
I know the next, deadThrough shadows of the mind
Reaching for the light
I've seen them die
When I close my eyesReflections, of another life
Reflections, in my eyesI've seen the dead
Tomorrow's victim
I've told of places I've seen
But have never beenTerror, fear
As each life ends
Horror, dread
I've seen the next, dead
