

To the Limit

Boyz II Men

I'll rub your back, wash your hair
I'll do anything, I don't care
I'll cook your food, buy your clothes
To the limit, I will go, I will go I guess you wonder where I've been I've been thinking 'bout the perfect way to express my thoughts within
You mean everything to me
And I wanna be the only man to supply your needs I'll rub your back, wash your hair
I'll do anything, I don't care
I'll cook your food, buy your clothes
To the limit, I will go, I will go I await your precious kiss
Gets my head when they spread sweet and wet across my lips
I respond to every single touch
Got me open on your love, wanna give you so much I'll rub your back, wash your hair
I'll do anything, I don't care
I'll cook your food, buy your clothes
To the limit, I will go, I will go The things I'll do for you, take you out for a night on the town
And after, I'll run you some bath water
With some bubbles, do you like bubbles? Yea
I'll dry you off and lotion your body down, so baby lay back I'll rub your back, wash your hair
I'll do anything, I don't care, I don't care
I'll cook your food, buy your clothes
To the limit, I will go, I will go I'll rub your back, wash your hair
I'll do anything, I don't care, I don't care
I'll cook your food, buy your clothes
To the limit, I will go, I will go I'll rub your back, wash your hair
I'll do anything, I don't care, I don't care
I'll cook your food, buy your clothes
To the limit, I will go, I will go I'll rub your back, wash your hair
I'll do anything, I don't care
I'll cook your food, buy your clothes
To the limit, I will go, I will go Can you hear me singing? Yea
Feels like Heaven when you're around
Feels like Heaven
And I want you always by my side
