

Sleeping with Ghosts

Placebo

The sea's evaporated
Though it comes as no surprise
These clouds we're seeing
There're explosions in the sky
It seems, it's written
But we can't read between the line
Hush, it's okay, dry your eye
Dry your eye, soul mate dry your eye
Dry your eye, soul mate dry your eye
'Cause soul mates never die
This one world vision
Turns us into compromise
What good's religion
When it's each other we despise
Damn the government
Damn their killing, damn their lies
Hush, it's okay, dry your eye
Dry your eye, soulmate dry your eye
Dry your eye, soulmate dry your eye
'Cause soul mates never die
Soul mates never die, never die
Soul mates never die
Soul mates never die
Soul mates never die
