For This Moment Only

Total Touch

For this moment only, I have come to realise
My life is passing by, I cry the world goodbye
Wakin' up the feeling, I will be strong,
I'm gonna fight,
Help with the healing, give me strenght to try
No I can not relate, to all my fears,
I'm not a volunteer, I'm forced to stand in lineLive, I want to give, the miracle that's mine
Inspite of intentions, I worry to waste timeWill you be there, for the rest of my time
Make me a home there when I'm flying high
Will you stay there and let your heart follow mine
Come here and hold me
Together we'll be for this moment onlySoon there comes the moment
That you'll try to dry my eyes
Silence is ruling time, I will then arise
When the pressure is beyond, the need to understand
Live's put a hold on me, I will no longer bePlease tell me now, is there a chance
My heart will beat again in all your memories
My whole world in your hands
My absence will not leave you in despair
I leave my soul with you, you will know what to doWill you be there, for the rest of my time
Make me a home there when I'm flying high
Will you stay there and let your heart follow mine
Come here and hold me
Together we'll be, for this moment onlyWill you pass down my plan
