

The Warming Sun

Grandaddy

In a dream
You were sittin' there waitin' by the door for me
And I got the opportunity
To experience
The experience once again
How it could have maybe been? But in real life
You're in another world with another guy
Who doesn't have to cheat and never has to lie
And all that stuff I didn't get
Comes so easy to him
He doesn't even have to try
Till you have her ask yourself
How it could have maybe been? I haven't been that bad
But, I haven't been that good
Over misunderstood
Oh, I wish I really could
Enjoy the warmin' sun
Enjoy a warm someone
And end the need to hide
Away alone inside No, I haven't been that bad
But, I haven't been that good
Over misunderstood
Oh, I wish I really could
Enjoy the warmin' sun
Enjoy a warm someone
And end the need to hide
Away alone inside
Ha haa ha
Haa haa haa haa In a dream
You were sittin' there waitin' by the door for me {I said, "Hey, you get out of my park"
I said, "Hey, you get out of my park" }
