Tell Me

Justincase

Snow is falling across the streetlights, it's nothing I can change
And summer left me and I wish you hadn't
Before you took the chance to say
All the things you didn't sayI know the stars won't fade
But they just don't shine
Since you went awayTell me, am I a fool
Thinking that you needed me there?
Maybe I'm wrong, I don't belong
Acting as if I knew what I mean to youWatching sunrise, coffee at noon
All the things that I miss now like I miss you
And I wonder what you're thinking, and I wonder what you're doing now
I wonder if the same things that got me down are getting you downWho knows maybe I'm to blame
For hanging all my faith
On yesterdayTell me, am I a fool
Thinking that you needed me there?
Maybe I'm wrong, I don't belong
Acting as if I knew what I mean to youI know the stars won't fade
But they just don't shine
Since you went away, yeahTell me, am I a fool
Thinking that you needed me there?
Maybe I'm wrong, I don't belong
Acting as if I knew what I mean to youTell me, am I a fool
Thinking that you needed me there?
Maybe I'm wrong, I don't belong
Acting as if I knew what I mean to youTell me, am I a fool
Thinking that you needed me there?
Maybe I'm wrong, I don't belong
Acting as if I knew what I mean to you
What do I mean to you?
