

Ghosts

Ibeyi

Welcome to my earth,
It's a crying shame,
We have built a foolish world,
Busy fighting, cruelly lying, and denying. My ghosts are not gone,
They dance in the shade,
and kiss the black core of my heart,
making words,
making sounds,
making songs. Now you can feel my heart spinning.
You turn my whole life around,
I want to write a new beginning,
Let go of the ghosts,
let dreams and hopes fly,
and give our love another try.
Should we just let it be? Make love to me,
My ghosts are not gone,
They kiss the black core of my heart,
making words,
making sounds,
making songs. Now you can feel my heart spinning.
You turn my whole life around,
I want to write a new beginning,
Let go of the ghosts,
let dreams and hopes fly,
and give our love another try.
Should we just let it be? We ain't nothing without love, without love,
We ain't nothing without love, without love. Mai mai mai soronso ae, Aggayu soronso,
mai mai mai soronso ae, Aggayu soronso.
