

Going In For Life

Drake

I don't think they really ready for my wardrobe
I show up right before the store close and blow the fee from my last four shows
I do one song and use four flows
She used to be a Christian before
And now all she wanna do is shop for Christian Dior Clothes Like "Baby those are cute, I adore those."
Me and the salesman build a rapport so
He understands the fact that I'm spending offshore dough
Cash only transactions homie,
And please no receipts, the feds like to explore those
They can't audit if they don't know I bought it
Been doing it for years homie, thoroughly I've thought it through, what it do?
I am currently recorded on a track admitting of my currency's imported We're too late now, it's too legitimate to hit 'em with a lawsuit even if those are acts that I did commit
Repeat offender
Anita Baker playin' in the whip as they pull me over
My sweet surrender
I got a jewish lawyer as my lead defender
A mieskeit, as they say, is a legal bender
And ATF is present, every regal member
The coalition, who so efficient
You have to be invited or there's no admission
We know tradition

We spend money so don't try to make compete if you are in no position
I wish you would listen
I take you back to this trial
Where I am about to be home again like New Edition
My foot is just solely meant for the shoe it fits in Used to record in a basement that Renny grew his piff in When pops turned over keys like a new ignition
If Hov is Jordan, I guess I'm cool with Pippen
'til I mention it, I wanna play a new position
No team playin', no screen settin'
Because I wanna win games coach, I'm through assistin'
The take over, the break's over, nigga

And I'm a keep killin' em until the day that Drake's over
The wait's over, the tape's coming
They bullshittin' but I am equipped with great plumbing
The human mentality's so eager to hate something
I try to play it off like it ain't chumpin'
And it's the predicament that you found Drake in They condo that I just purchased is sound vacant
'cause I have just been sittin' in this cell
Thinking what I coulda done to make my first video ground breaking
And whenever I'm flowing on the mic,
Aside from talking 'bout the D I'm throwin' in your wife
I treat this one session as if it were my last
And I pretend tomorrow is the day I'm going in for life
Like that
