

In The Morning

Lee Ryan

Sometimes I watch you while you're sleeping
So amazed at how pretty you are
I wonder what it is you're dreaming sometimes
Where your mind goes and just how far
Is it me
That makes your smile when dreamin'?
Or could it be
The other man you're seeing?
I guess, I'll ask you in the morning
Right before I pack my things and walk right out the door
I guess, I'll ask you in the morning
I'll pretend, we're still in love tonight
'Cos we won't be any more
In the morning
In the morning
Wish I could see inside your mind

So I could find out where we went wrong
Because your happiness was my sunshine
I should have known that the rain was sure to come
Is it me
That makes you smile when dreaming?
Or could it be
The other man you're seeing?
I guess, I'll ask you in the morning
Right before I pack my things and walk right out the door
I guess, I'll ask you in the morning
I'll pretend, we're still in love tonight
'Cos we won't be any more
In the morning
In the morning
In the morning
In the morning
