

What I'm Trying To Say

Stars

You look so good in the clothes of a poser
And when you smiled all the kids fell apart here
I know a place where it's warm and it's dry, dear
Let me take you there North of the river all the streets are the same
We can pretend that they don't know our name
And the heat is turned all the way to full
So don't pretend that you don't feel the pull I am trying to say
What I want to say
Without having to say
"I love you" You look so good in the shoes of an outcast
I kissed your throat every time they said it wouldn't last
But then I knew you, I knew you, I knew you
I really knew you We fell apart in the parties of the empty heart
We danced the junkies in the shadows of bad modern art
We clicked our heels and we wished we were home
One more tab and your silk hits the chrome I am trying to say
What I want to say
Without having to say
"I love you" I am trying to say
What I want to say
Without having to say
"I love you" Springs comes in when I'm rolling up another one
I draw the curtains in the glare of the same old sun
We are collapsed in the act of just being here
Three blues, two greens and a beer...
We are collapsed in the act of just being here
Three blues, two greens and a beer... I am trying to say
What I want to say
Without having to say
"I love you" I am trying to say
What I want to say
Without having to say
"I love you"

Songwriters

STEVENS, JEFFREY DAVID/LYNCH, STANLEY Published by

Lyrics © Warner/Chappell Music, Inc. Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnlyrics.com/>