Rooftop

Alta View

Say what you want of me about my tendencies and how I don't live inside your reality
you don't realize how hard you're grasping something until you let it go and see the mark you leftI'm choking like I need a lesson in breathing and where the rope ends you'll find me trapped and panicking (So I'll say)
why do you talk way up on your roof top where I can't hear my name what is something that you won't say babyI owe it to guys like Dan to get up and actually try instead of waste away the days wishing my passion would die this wave never rode so smooth when I had nothing to loseI'm a third string starter just here to do my job and no amount of doubters could ever write these songs do you know what it's like watching everything just pass you by in your pathetic life
