Gone Like the Water

Freedy Johnston

A red suitcase she'll never miss
A leather coat he used to wear
Thinking tough, looking tired
With momma's money and daddy's ringHe's gone like the water down to NYC
Sleeping on the 802
Along this river, running down
He's gone like the water down
The deep hole drain
Disappearing in the cityTwenty four and growing pale
Growing up, coming back
Drew a face on the ticket stub
With mamma's hands, and daddy's penHe's gone like the water down to NYC
Sleeping on the 802
Along this river, running down
He's gone like the water down
The deep hole drain
Disappearing in the cityTalk all night, cook all day
Looking for a new place to stay
Thinking hard, looking bad
With mama's dollar in daddy's coatHe's gone like the water down to NYC
Sleeping on the 802
Along this river, running down
He's gone like the water down
The deep hole drain
Disappearing in the city
