Soldier, Soldier

Isla Cameron

Said, "Soldier, now soldier
Would you marry me before the fight comes on?"
"How can I marry such a pretty little girl
When I got no suit to put on?"Well, she went to the dry goods store
Hard as she could run
She bought the finest little suit in the store
"Come on soldier put this on"Said, "Soldier, now soldier
Would you marry me before the fight comes on?"
"How can I marry such a pretty little girl
When I got no shoes to put on?"Well, she went to the dry goods store
Hard as she could run
She bought the finest little shoes in the store
"Come on soldier put these on"Said, "Soldier, now soldier
Would you marry me before the fight comes on?"
"How can I marry such a pretty little girl
When I got no hat to put on?"Well, she went to the dry goods store
Hard as she could run
She bought the finest little hat in the store
"Come on soldier put this on"Said, "Soldier, now soldier
Would you marry me before the fight comes on?"
"How can I marry such an ugly little girl
When I got a pretty wife at home?"
