Parachute

Keke Palmer

Your hearts beating fast,
then you open your eyes,
and you look up to the sky,
standing at the ledge,
wind in your hair,
turning back forth in your mind,
should you keep your feet on the ground,
in a safer place,
move away from the edge, just let go,
laugh life in the face.
When you jump,
and you're falling,
speeding towards the ground,
im the one who'll always catch you,
i aint, aint gonna let you down.
I'll be your parachute (oh oh)
I'll be your parachute (oh oh)
I'll be your parachute (oh oh)
I'll be your parachute (oh oh)
I'll be your parachute (oh oh)
I'll be your parachute (oh oh)
I can be the one to carry you,
But you'll have to learn to fly, (Fly, Oh)
I'll be believe in you, you believe in yourself, sometimes the way is, it's better for you if you try,
try to keep your feet your feet off the ground,
to find a better place,
you can run to the edge,
just let go, laugh life in the face.
When you jump,
and you're falling,
speeding towards the ground,

im the one who'll always catch you,
i aint, aint gonna let you down.
I'll be your parachute (oh oh)
I'll be your parachute (oh oh)
I'll be your parachute (oh oh)
Feel like you're about to fall

let go of all on the drama,
let me look on your soul,
this dream will never set,
ill always have your back,
haul you up, through the rough times, got you forever,
tell me your problems, i'll protect you like some shoulder pads,
you know i'm there for you, il be your parachute.
When you jump,
and you're falling,
speeding towards the ground,
im the one who'll always catch you,
i aint, aint gonna let you down.
I'll be your parachute (oh oh)
I'll be your parachute (oh oh)
I'll be your parachute (oh oh)
I'll be your parachute (oh oh)
I'll be your parachute (oh oh)
I'll be your parachute (oh oh)
Your parachute,
Your parachute,
I can be your parachute,
Your parachute,
Your parachute,
I can be your parachute...
