Ransom

Escape the Fate

sending shivers right down your spine, its somthing that your prone to, so divine.
you were better at lies, (i was never surprised) at the way that it felt.
now feel the blade, (i was always insane)
but your the one that needs help.

QUICK!
we have the ransom
tell me how that you can swim when ropes are wrapped around your limbs
theres no more chances
so tell me how that you can swim when ropes are wrapped around your limbs.

beathing slowly never worked for me.
i cut the throat of betrayal to watch him bleed.
GO
a poetic sonet,
passion that i scream to the sky,
im tearing up
i feel your,
love dont leave me behind [x2]

the smell of vanity,
it went away.
i followed steetlights till i wound up at your place.
we traced our veins, (we bled for days)
the currents srtong enough tonight
i cant taste anymore,
it lasted on my tongue.
you werent strong enough to say..

QUICK
we have the ransom,
tell me how that you can swim when ropes are wrapped around your limbs,
theres no more chances
so tell me now if you can swim when ropes are wrapped around your limbs.

grab my heart,

take this down,
with your soul,
and burry it in the ground.

GO
i talked to you today
i heard the tremble in your voice, (cradle the fall)
i know you'll never change so please just hold on (i know it's hard for you)
its hard to understand (betrayal within) there is a fine line between betrayal (betrayal) and your friends.

quick,
we have the ransom.
so tell me how that you can swim when ropes are qrapped around your limbs.
