Le Tigre

Paris, Texas

Like a tiger I know you have claws too big for a pet
Danger danger it's a lie you haven't hurt anyone yet
All of the times we live life like we're in a cage
Never believe in someone else
You can change the day
Like a tiger I know you have skin so soft I confess
Pitter, patter
Always buy a pet you love to caress
So you've got yourself a big old car
And a sunken pool in the back yard
Well it doesn't matter much to me
It makes no sense to me if you want a tiger
It makes no sense to me if you want to change
