

Meet Me on the Equinox

Death Cab for Cutie

Meet me on the Equinox
Meet me half way
When the sun is perched at it's highest peek
In the middle of the dayLet me give my love to you
Let me take your hand
And as we walk in the dimming light
Oh darling understandThat everything, everything ends
That everything, everything endsMeet me on your best behavior
Meet me at your worst
For there will be no stone unturned
Or bubble left to burstLet me lay beside you, darling
Let me be your man
And let our bodies intertwine
But always understandThat everything, everything ends
That everything, everything ends
That everything, everything, everything endsA window
An opened tomb
The sun crawls
Across your bedroom
A halo
A waiting room
Your last breaths
Moving through youAs everything, everything ends
As everything, everything ends
As everything, everything, everything
Everything, everything, everything endsMeet me on the Equinox
Meet me half way
When the sun is perched at it's highest peek
In the middle of the dayLet me give my love to you
Let me take your hand
And as we walk in the dimming light
Oh darling understandThat everything, everything ends
