

Choices

Mudvayne

Leaders are guilty of nothing
They're perfectly insane
But if they'd point the finger at themselves
Who would be left to blame? Lead into grace or lead to corruption
(Eeny, meeny, miny, moe)
A truth or lie has to be spoken
(Eeny, meeny, miny, moe)
King or con has to be chosen
(Eeny, meeny, miny, moe)
Way of life, complete or broken, broken No more choices
No more choices
No more choices
No more choices Leaders are guilty of nothing
They're perfectly insane
But if they'd point the finger at themselves
Who would be left to blame? Follow the truth or just stutter through a lie
(Eeny, meeny, miny, moe)
Will to push or give up and fall behind
(Eeny, meeny, miny, moe)
Live with peace or nurture your tragic life
(Eeny, meeny, miny, moe)
Bite the bullet or swallow it whole Leaders are guilty of nothing
They're perfectly insane
But if they'd point the finger at themselves
Who would be left to blame?
Point the finger at yourself
There's no choice anymore anyway We don't have a choice anymore anyway
We don't have a voice anymore anyway
There's no choice in freedom
There's no voice in freedom We don't have a choice anymore anyway
We don't have a voice anymore anyway
There's no choice in freedom
There's no voice in freedom Leaders are guilty of nothing
They're perfectly insane
But if they'd point the finger at themselves
Who would be left to blame? Their lost system of destruction
[Incomprehensible]
Flush all hope down the drain
(All hope down the drain)

But if they'd point the finger at themselves
(At themselves)
Who is left to blame? Who is left to blame? We don't have a choice anymore anyway
We don't have a voice anymore anyway
There's no choice in freedom
There's no voice in freedom We don't have a choice anymore anyway
We don't have a voice anymore anyway
There's no choice in freedom
There's no voice in freedom We don't have a choice anymore anyway
We don't have a voice anymore anyway
We don't have a reason anymore anyway
We don't have control anymore anyway
We don't have opinions anymore anyway There's no choice in freedom
There's no voice in freedom Freedom, buy in, freedom, sell out
Freedom, betray, freedom, lay down
Freedom, corrupt, freedom, opinion
Freedom, give up, freedom, give in
