

Brand New Song

Reel Big Fish

I've got a brand new girlfriend
She is so lovely lovely
I've got a new ex-girlfriend
She is so fat and ugly
Oh not you again it gets worse
Everytime and one plus two again
Won't work I can't divide it
Well I let it go, I don't care
I love you when you're not there
A brand new song just for you
I'm not sorry about the things I do I've got a brand new song
It is so happy happy
I've got a brand new attitude
It is so hateful hateful
Not you again it gets worse everytime &
One plus two again won't work I can't divide it
Well I let it go I don't care
I love you when you're not there
A brand new song just for you
I'm so sorry (but that's not true) You keep tellin' me that it's so easy to forget it
You keep tellin' me but I know
I'll always regret it,
Yeah yeah yeah You keep tellin' me that it's so easy to forget it
You keep tellin' me but I know
I'll always regret it,
Well I let it go
I don't care I love you when you're not there
A brand new song I've done my best
I'm so sorry, sorry- about this mess
