

Down To the Service

Wrens

got to the service and fell on my lazy my son, get out of here they don't want you so don't turn back take away this gay U.S. they wonder why I want to live I want to die, I want to take what's mine they always say, "what went wrong my son" standing proud over you looking down laughing like I only can take my gun and I'll take away warm anything
