

Through The Front Door

Vetiver

Won't be back again, I know
I feel beside you fall through me
These rooms, these halls
Got a lot of our memories And the way I see things
Don't do a damn for me Through the front door
I see the light of our room
I've been wrong before
But I've been right enough too Still I won't be back no more
I'm gonna now try and undo
These thoughts are free
Of the need to be free
