Disco Man

The Damned

Take my hand, discoman
Are you just a one night stand?
Have some fun, jump the gun
But what's left when it's all doneBut who are you taking for a ride, discoman
Better to run or else to hide discoman, discomanTall and neat, watch his feet
Got the jist he's all complete
Understand discomans
Heading for the garbage canHave you just crossed a bridge too far, discoman
Jump in a cab and steal a car, the worse in the land
Discoman, one night stand, discoman
I can't understand, discomanWhat are you doing
Your life's in a ruin
You're out of our head
You oughta be deadDown the stairs, no-one cares
He who wuins is he who dares
Rock n Roll, lose control
Just forget you're on the doleBut who are you taking for a ride, discoman
Better to run or else to hide, worst in the land
Discoman, one night stand, discoman
I can't understand, discomanAre you ready(x2)
For the discoman
