

Lonely Grill

Lonestar

Box speaker talkin' out a tune
Two for one on a blue lagoon
Another lost and found Bartender takes another pass
Puts the salt on the rim of another glass
And he sets it down I'm know every color of every neon sign
Flashin' out a heartache in the back of my mind Down at the lonely grill
Got nothin' but time to kill
At the end of everyday
I sit in a corner booth
Do nothin' but think of you
And the love we threw away
And I guess, I always will
Down at the lonely grill Sad eyed waitress called Betty Lynn
Got her order pad and her ball point pen
Said what'll it be? I said "A tall glass of cold regret"
A full order of loneliness
Like every night this week I'll shoulder my pride and I drink it down
Another smoke filled evenin' with no fire to be found Down at the lonely grill
Got nothin' but time to kill
At the end of everyday
I sit in a corner booth
Do nothin' but think of you
And the love we threw away
And I guess, I always will
Down at the lonely grill
Lonely grill I sit in a corner booth
Do nothin' but think of you
And the love we threw away
And I guess, I always will
Down at the lonely grill
Lonely grill Ooh
Down at the lonely grill
Ohh oh
Down at the lonely grill
Ohh, ooh oh
Down at the lonely grill
Ohh, ooh oh, oh
At the lonely grill

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnlyrics.com/>