Autumn In the Park

Suburban Legends

The things I am missin'
You're huggin' and you're kissin'
Now that you're gone
It's your love I'll be missin'
You and me, and happiness could be
Could this be the beginning of the ending?
Our time is short, soon it will be ending
The way you make me feel is so unreal
You and me together, but nothing lasts forever
"Come dance with me, all you little boys
don't be afraid, we can dance, dance the night away"
"Come dance with me," that's what I heard her say
"Don't be afraid, we can dance, dance the night away"
Can your hear me
Can you feel me
Can't you see things will never be the same?
