Runaway Love

Johnny O.

Mujer te quiero mucho
Nuncha te dejo
You want to know why
'Cause Johnny is here to stayLove, a special word that's shared by two
An understanding that I love you
Dream of all dreams and you are my fantasyI feel that things won't always be right
We must remain strong and go on
Always remember my love that I adore you
Siempre te amoYou have got that love I'm needing more
Even though we faced closed doors
I have but one wish and that is to love youSo don't you runaway, runaway my love
And don't you take away, take away my heart
There's only much that I can say or do to you
To make you love meGirl, an understanding of you and I
A love so precious, so treasured and true
Our love will stand the test of time to showI'll always care, baby just for you
I'll never let you down you know
Sweetheart you make me strong
For I'll be there for you
Nuncha te dejoYou have got that love I'm needing more
Even though we faced closed doors
I have but one wish and that is to love youSo don't you runaway, runaway my love
And don't you take away, take away my heart
There's only much that I can say or do to you
To make you love meYou have got that love I'm needing more
Even though we faced closed doors
I have but one wish and that is to love youSo don't you runaway, runaway my love
And don't you take away, take away my heart
There's only much that I can say or do to you
To make you love me
