Constant Conversations

Connected: Passion Pit

But you never leave
Ooo ohooo ooo
Never
But you never ever leave
But you never
Nooo
Well you're wrapped up in a blanket
And you're staring at the floor
The conversation's moderated
By the noisy streets below
I never wanna hurt you baby
I'm just a mess with a name and a price
And now I'm drunker then before they Told me drinking doesn't make me nice
You never know where some people will go
Yes some people been hurting me
You can tell by a look, by the slightest crook
In their neck or the blink of an eye
Well then they'll say what they say
And they'll do what they do
But it doesn't mean a goddamn thing
You can listen if you want, you can listen if you don't
Yeah they'll talk, yeah they'll even sing
(Everybody now!)
Oo ooh ooo
They come singing through the windows, singing through the trees
Yeah they're singing through the bright spring leaves
(Everybody now!)
Ooo ooh ooo
Yeah they love you when they need you
But someday you're gonna need to find some other kind of place to go

But you never leave
Ooo ohooo ooo
Never
But you never ever leave
But you never
Noooo
Now you're standing in the kitchen

And you're pouring out my drink
And there is a very obvious difference
And is that one of us can think
If there is a bump in the road yeah you'd fix it
But for me I'd just run off the road
But tonight you got me cornered
And I hadn't got a place to go
You never know where some people will go
Yes some people been hurting me
You can tell by a look, by the slightest crook
In their neck or the blink of an eye
Well then they'll say what they say
And they'll do what they do
But it doesn't mean a goddamn thing
You can listen if you want, you can listen if you don't
Yeah they'll talk, yeah they'll even sing
(Everybody now!)
Oo ooh ooo
They come singing through the windows, singing through the trees
Yeah they're singing through the bright spring leaves
(Everybody now!)
Ooo ooh ooo (Singing loud!)
Yeah they love you when they need you
But someday you're gonna need to find some other kind of place to go
(Don't you know?)
