Too Hip Gotta Go

Stray Cats

Well I've been hanging around this town too long
And it seems like every woman done me wrong
She's in love, but I'm in lust
Well the suitcases gatherin' dust
Baby, baby, baby, I'll see you some dayThere ain't nothing good coming out of this situation
And if this is any kind of indication
Well love is not for me
And there's a hole new world to see
Baby, baby, baby, I'll see you some dayToo hip, gotta go
Too hip, gotta go
You ain't running my life no moreToo hip, gotta go
Too hip, gotta go
When I step foot out of this doorI won't even bother to pack
I'm gonna leave you sugar, never come back
Baby, baby, baby, I'll see you some day
Gotta goToo hip, gotta go
Too hip, gotta go
You ain't running my life no moreToo hip, gotta go
Too hip, gotta go
When I step foot out of this doorI won't even bother to pack
I'm gonna leave you sugar, never come back
Baby, baby, baby, I'll see you some day
Baby, baby, baby, I'll see you some day
Baby, baby, baby, I'll see you some day
