Death Renames the Light

36 Crazyfists

I cant lose anything.
I watched you run from the demons that drown you.
Wash the blood from your hands.
From the darkest of days, to the deadliest sands.
Now's where the liars will come,
The broken. The beaten. The battered. The numb.
I, once wrote these things, so I could change
From agonies in me.
Then fell from grace, and back again.
Eyes awake all night.
Death renames the light.
Death renames the light, renames the light.I, once wrote these things, so I could change
From agonies... Rename the light.I, once wrote all these things, so I could change
From agonies in me.
Then fell from grace, and back again.
Eyes awake all night.
Death renames the light.Now's where the body will bleed
Gale force the wind. Heighten the seaI, once wrote these things, so I could change
From agonies in me.
Then fell from grace, and back again.
Eyes awake all night.
Death renames the light.
Death renames the light, renames the light.I, once wrote these things, so I could change
From agonies...Until the end...
Pain reveals it...Until the end...
Pain reveals...Until the end...
Reveals...Until the end...
Pain reveals...Until the end...
Reveals it...THE LIGHT, DEATH RENAMES THE LIGHT
RENAMES THE LIGHTI, once wrote these things, so I could change
From agonies, and I,
Once wrote these things, so I could change
From agonies... OHH.
