

Something That I Like

Ryan Leslie

Is it the accent, the hype or the way she walkin'?
Am I, am I dreamin' or am I sleepwalkin'?
Got my arms outstretched so I don't bump into her
Silly me, now I'm so into her
Fashion, to her style of dress
And I'm lookin' in the mirror like do I look fresh?
Do I? Do I look fresh enough to get her?
If I see her one time then I won't forget her
'Cause I, I took a picture mentally
When I pulled up in a black on black Bentley
And I, I really feel like she was meant for me
If she wasn't then I know she was sent for me
'Cause she, she's the only one that made me chase
Got me singin' love songs like Babyface
And I tried to one night her but she made me wait
She made me wait
And so I think she got somethin'
She got somethin', think she got somethin'
Somethin' that I like
(Somethin' I like, oh, she yeah)
So I think she got somethin'
She got somethin', yeah, she got somethin'
Somethin' that I like, ohh
(Now break it down like)
She's got that somethin'
She got that somethin', that I like
(Uh, say it again like)
She's got that somethin'
She got that somethin' that I like
Uh, I slow it down 'fore I pick her up
It's eight o'clock now we datin'
Inevitably dude's be hatin' but I, I still gotta flaunt my chick
I laugh, no surprise that they want my chick
She's, more than they can comprehend
British dude's idolize when they copy him
He's just too witty, game is too gritty
Look at his track record man, there's too many
Tens, that's too many to count
I spend, that's at any amount

No matter the sum homie, got the cash to cover it
And when I'm wantin' see, she'll be fast to mother it
Yea, just so she can take my ends
Would I let her do it? Hmm, well, that depends
Can she raise a young king? My blood is royal
And if she can't, man, it ain't a thing to spoil her
And so I think she got somethin'
She got somethin', think she got somethin'
Somethin that I like, somethin' I like
(Somethin' I like, oh, she yeah)
So I think she got somethin'
She got somethin, yeah, she got somethin'
Somethin' that I like, ohh
(Now break it down like)
She's got that somethin'
She got that somethin' that I like
(Uh, say it again like)
She's got that somethin'
She got that somethin' that I like
The CL's waitin' just as soon as the plane lands
The ball on the city is the game plan
Bottle service over here, money changed hands
Lover broke, nigga called 'em RayBan
Yeah, champagne bubbles
Hot drunk girls more fun when they love you
Later for the days when I used to see double
The whole city know who's the power couple
Fly as she wanna be, never been a wanna be
Jealous hoes hatin' 'cause she everythin' they wanna be
Yeah, give 'em what they wanna see
What's they talk about when the [Incomprehensible]
She don't gossip, she just bossip
All the same rules, Rihanna rock some bossip
Any give it Sunday is project runway
Somethin' that I like and I gotta have one day
So I think she got somethin'
She got somethin, yeah, she got somethin'
Somethin' that I like
(Somethin' I like, oh, she yeah)
So I think she got somethin'
She got somethin, yeah, she got somethin'
Somethin' that I like, oh
(Now break it down like)
She's got that somethin'
She got that somethin' that I like

(Uh, say it again like)
She's got that somethin'
She got that somethin' that I like
