Walls And Fear

Haste The Day

We're gonna break
These walls down
Come on, baby
Let's bring them down to the ground
Let's get outta this place
We've been so long
We're getting outta here
Let's bring them down
No more fear
No more holding back
Let's be stronger
Than we've been in the past
We're gonna break
These walls down
Come on, baby
Let's bring them down
We're tired, we're tired of being held back
Captive by these walls and fear to tear them down
We're tired, we're tired of being helpless
We're so weak but as one we'll tear them down
Tired of being put down
You put it down
Breakin' free
Breakin' free
I'm so sick and tired
Tired of being held back
You hold it back
Breakin' free
Breakin' free
We're tired, we're tired of being held back
Captive by these walls and fear to tear them down
We're tired, we're tired of being afraid
It will be hard but we will keep trying till they fall
We're tired, we're tired of being helpless
We're so weak but as one we'll tear them down
We're gonna break these walls
We won't wait any more
Never been so strong before
We're gonna break these walls

We won't wait any more
Never been so strong before
We're gonna break these walls
We won't wait anymore
Never been so strong before
We're gonna break these walls
We won't take anymore
Today is the day
Beating harder
Breaking free
