

Honestly

Gabbie Hanna

White lies, but they're getting dark
Blurred lines, but they're getting clearer
Just tell the truth, ay, it's not that hard
    You call me crazy
    So am I crazy?
Your words don't hold any weight
I can't seem to get a straight answer
Don't trust you, but who's to blame?
    I think you're crazy
But am I crazy? Got me second guessin' everything you say
    Thinkin' that I know you, but you're really a stranger
    Doin' what you gotta do to get your way
    You're reckless and selfish and you can't help it
    Say you're talkin' to me honestly
    But you're lyin' to me constantly, oh
    All the bullshit, I don't need it
    And honestly, I don't believe it, nah
    Say you're talkin' to me honestly
    But I don't want your dumb apology, no
    Say you're sorry, you don't mean it
Sorry that I don't believe it, nah Say too much, but it's not enough
    Got me wonderin', 'what a lie you hiding?'
    Did you lie when you called it love?
    Or am I crazy?
Somebody save me Got me second guessin' everything you say
    Thinkin' that I know you, but you're really a stranger
    Doin' what you gotta do to get your way
    You're reckless and selfish and you can't help it
    Say you're talkin' to me honestly
    But you're lyin' to me constantly, oh
    All the bullshit, I don't need it
    And honestly, I don't believe it, nah
    Say you're talkin' to me honestly
    But I don't want your dumb apology, no
    Say you're sorry, you don't mean it
Sorry that I don't believe it, nah Don't know what's reality
    Made me question my sanity, oh
    Don't know what's reality
Am I losing my sanity? Say you're talkin' to me honestly

But you're lyin' to me constantly, oh
All the bullshit, I don't need it
And honestly, I don't believe it, nah
Say you're talkin' to me honestly
But I don't want your dumb apology, no
Say you're sorry, you don't mean it
Sorry that I don't believe it, nah
Say you're talkin' to me honestly (I don't need it)
But you're lyin' to me constantly (I don't believe it, no)
Say you're talkin' to me honestly (I don't need it)
But you're lyin' to me constantly (I don't believe it, no)
(Say you're talkin' to me honestly
But you're lyin' to me constantly
Say you're talkin' to me honestly
But you're lyin' to me constantly, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah)
