Goodbye

Here we are standing face to face
No words need be said
Your eyes speak the pain
Your tears start to rain
And I may drown
You donâ€™t need me and I donâ€™t need you
Fooling ourselves yeah we both played the fools
I donâ€™t know what to say I donâ€™t feel the same as yesterday
Fear floods into my mind, tears start to fill my eyes
Remember all the times we tried
Remember all the tears we cried
And in your eyes I guess Iâ€™ll be the same
The one who brought you all your pain
I wonâ€™t forget the time
That you spent in my life
Iâ€™ll miss your smile
I find myself praying on my knees asking God to please show me
The way to leave you behind and for His light
To light my way
Fear floods into my mind
Tears start to fill my eyes
Remember all the times we tried
How we swore weâ€™d never say goodbye
And when this day turns to memory
I hope you smile when you think of me
This silent night will fade
Time will take away the pain
Time will tell
