Nobody Knows

The Pierces

Camera flash and the lights go out
I forgot what I was playing about
People come and people go
Where they go nobody knowsNobody knows
Nobody knows
Nobody knowsEverybody's talking about the latest buzz
I wasn't listening to what it was
Pay attention, the tension grows
Where it grows, nobody knowsNobody knows
Nobody knows
Nobody knows
Nobody knows
Nobody knowsNobody shows you if they love you
They try so hard to be above youEverybody's looking at the pretty boy
The one who's making all the noise
He don't read much as it shows
Ladies don't love him for what he knowsFor what he knows
For what he knows
For what he knows
For what he knowsHe never shows you if he loves you
He only tries so hard to be above youIt's getting late so I turn in Nothing happened yet again
I'm just waiting on love to showWhere it is nobody knows
I'm just waiting for love to show
Where it is, nobody knowsNobody knows
Nobody knows
Nobody knows
Nobody knows
Nobody knowsNobody shows you if they love you
They only try so hard to be above youLa, la, la, la, la, la
