The First Christmas Morn

Charley Pride

A star in the east, leading wise men to Him.
He and his mother, bringing gifts to them.
A sign telling all, the Christ child is born,
On this first Christmas morn.Shepherds lay trembling from fear, some were fleeing, the east sky ablaze, what could they be seeing.
They heard of the Savior,
soon to be born, had He come
On this first Christmas morn.Could this be the day, a new world begins, can this tiny child, walk thru life, free from sin. Has mankind been blessed with a port from all storms, on this first Christmas morn.These things came to pass, as now we all know.
May these thoughts be planted in our minds to grow.
Lets not forget why He wore a crown of thorns on this next Christmas morn.
Could this be the day, a new world begins, can this tiny child, walk thru life, free from sin. Has mankind been blessed with a port from all storms, on this first Christmas morn.
