Hold Your Fire

Save Me Hollywood

I keep a sinister smile and my heart in it's place
I keep my secrets on lock and a mask on this face
But every time you speak you trigger a landslide in meI could just sit and pretend you mean nothing to me
It'd be the sweetest revenge
And all that I need
But with a single touch an animal's releasedAnd these snakes come out to play
With every word you say
My demons are best friends
They're getting the best of meOh hold your fire
And dance to this beat
Because I'm hearing the sound of
Another liar
And if this means war
It just means you're asking for moreI don't admit defeat
I know I'm better than that
Was never one to deceive
Or hide behind your back
But every time we touch, I can't hardly breatheAnd these snakes come out to play
With every word you say
My demons are best friends
They're getting the best of meOh hold your fire
And dance to this beat
Because I'm hearing the sound of
Another liar
And if this means war
It just means you're asking for moreOh hold your fire
And dance to this beat
Because I'm hearing the sound of
Another liar
And if this means war
It just means you're asking for moreWhy have we come to this, why have come to Stop your defending,stop second guessingOh hold your fire
And dance to this beat
Because I'm hearing the sound of
Another liar
And if this means war
It just means you're asking for more
It just means you're asking for more
It just means you're asking for more
