

Hold Your Fire

Save Me Hollywood

I keep a sinister smile and my heart in it's place
I keep my secrets on lock and a mask on this face
But every time you speak you trigger a landslide in me I could just sit and pretend you mean nothing to me
It'd be the sweetest revenge
And all that I need
But with a single touch an animal's released And these snakes come out to play
With every word you say
My demons are best friends
They're getting the best of me Oh hold your fire
And dance to this beat
Because I'm hearing the sound of
Another liar
And if this means war
It just means you're asking for more I don't admit defeat
I know I'm better than that
Was never one to deceive
Or hide behind your back
But every time we touch, I can't hardly breathe And these snakes come out to play
With every word you say
My demons are best friends
They're getting the best of me Oh hold your fire
And dance to this beat
Because I'm hearing the sound of
Another liar
And if this means war
It just means you're asking for more Oh hold your fire
And dance to this beat
Because I'm hearing the sound of
Another liar
And if this means war
It just means you're asking for more Why have we come to this, why have come to Stop your defending, stop second guessing Oh hold your fire
And dance to this beat
Because I'm hearing the sound of
Another liar
And if this means war
It just means you're asking for more
It just means you're asking for more
It just means you're asking for more
